REQUEST FOR EXEMPTION FROM QUALIFIED SPECIAL TAX

Under the provisions of the Measure E (Section 4) approved by voters on June 7, 2022:

- Persons who will attain 65 years of age on or prior to June 15 of the current tax year, file an application for exemption, own a beneficial interest in the parcel, and use that parcel as his or her principal place of residence shall receive a full year's credit effective July 1 of the following tax year. Application must be received by July 1st to qualify for the full exemption the first year.
- Persons who will attain 65 years of age after June 15 file an application for exemption after June 15 and on or prior to December 15 of the current tax year, own a beneficial interest in the parcel, and use that parcel as his or her principal place of residence shall receive a half year's credit for the current tax year.
- Persons receiving Supplemental Security Income (SSI) for a disability or individuals receiving Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits (yearly income not to exceed 250% of 2012 federal poverty level), regardless of age, and occupying said parcel as principal residence.
